Visualization and insights report

-most common dog names:

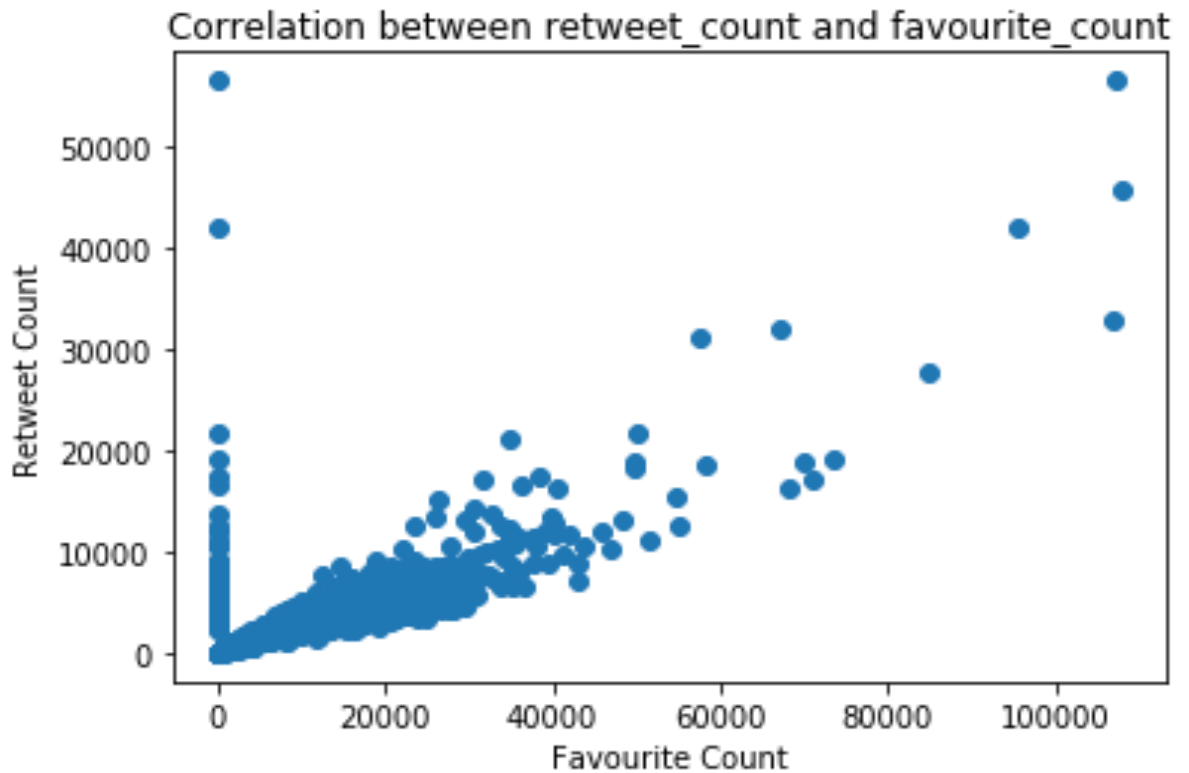

As shown in the chart the most common dog name within the tweet data is Charlie with 11 dogs.

-The highest frequency of rating:-

Ratings Distribution

the highest frequency of rating is approximatley 700 with average of 12 rating.

-investigating in the correlation between favourite count and retweets count

Correlation between retweet_count and favourite_count the scatter plot shows that there is a positive correlation between the favourite count and retween count, as the favourite count gets higher the retweet count also gets higher.